HANNA L. NIEMEYER

Mrs. Hanna Louise Niemeyer, who resided in Groton 34 years previous to removing to St. Paul, Minn., in 1937, died there June 17th and was buried in the Wellington Lutheran church cemetery near Fairfax, Minn., on June 21, following funeral services first in St. Paul at the Memorial Lutheran Lutheran church, Rev. W. E. Bartell, officiant and in the Wellington church near Fairfax, where the Rev. E. G. Fritz officiated.

Mrs. Niemeyer was 82 years of age at the time of her death, having been born at Princeton, Wis., June 1, 1859. She was married to Henry Niemeyer at Springfield, Ill., Feb. 8, 1883, and resided there until removing with her husband to a farm near Renville, Minn., in 1892.

She came to Groton to reside in 1903, her husband having died in 1898 and made her home here until 1937 when she went to St. Paul as mentioned above. She is remembered with much affection in Groton as one of the gentlest souls of the town. Quiet spoken and kindly, she won and kept many friends among her neighbors and all with whom she came in contact.

Immediate survivor is a son, Geo. H. Niemeyer of St. Paul, four grand children and seven great-grandchildren. Other survivors are two brothers, C. W. Dallman, Franklin, Minn., and F. A. Dallman, Rippling, Wis.
